School Halloween Parade

Students in grades KR-3 will dress in costumes and parade inside the school. The parade will begin at 12:50 pm. Families are invited to come watch. Please come in the front school entrance and line the hallway between the art room and office or the auditorium hallway to see the students. 2nd and 3rd graders will continue out the main doors to the walk to the nursing home while the other grades will return to their rooms for parties.

1st Quarter has come to a close. Grade cards will be sent home on Friday, October 26th.

Students are encouraged to bring in jars of peanut butter or jelly this week to support Make a Difference Day on Saturday. All jars will be donated to local charities.
